Story

“So, I am a fairy, F A I R Y, fairy! I am here to fulfil folks’ wishes. Three goes! The wheel of fortune has stopped at you, this time. Here’s a little tip! Make your mind up quick! Once people start thinking, everything gets bogged down, like chewing gum. What they mostly want is Wealth, Beauty, and Health for life. We don’t offer eternal life or death to all in authority.”

All at once, there she was in his bedroom. Wearing black fishnet tights, red combats, and a bristly hedgehog hairstyle. Adrian rather thought a fairy would look different. However, given that Aurelia has turned up, why not ask her to fulfil his heart’s desire? It is Sandrine, the coolest girl in the whole school. But, why is Aurelia making such a fuss about fulfilling his wish?

Dagmar Geisler

Dagmar Geisler was born in 1958 in Siegen and studied drawing in Wiesbaden. After graduating in 1984, she worked as graphic designer and illustrator for several publishing houses and broadcasting companies. In 1987 Dagmar Geisler illustrated her first book for children, the “Leselöwen-Quatschgeschichten” by Manfred Mai. From now on she focused on drawing comics and illustrations for children’s books, which have been awarded several times. For some years now she also writes successful children's books. Her educational picture books deal with recent and sensitive issues. With her sensitive stories Dagmar Geisler succeeds very well to transport useful preventive measures not only from an educational perspective, but also with a certain amount of excitement and humor. Today, Dagmar Geisler lives with her family in the Franconian Switzerland.
