Anna dreams of becoming a prima ballerina. However, she is involved in a serious car accident, which very nearly kills her, together with her chances of becoming a professional dancer. Step by step, Anna struggles to rebuild her life and, with the help of friends Rainer and Jakob, finds a way of dancing ballet again. When she is taken on by the famous ballet teachers Sonja Kralowa and Valentine d'Arbanville, she sees her way clear to becoming a successful dancer. Until Anna falls in love with Jakob whose own dancing career has ground to a halt. Will Anna really be able to achieve her dream?
