Story

An absolute must for all fans of Cornelia Funke!

This beautifully refurbished omnibus volume of stories by best selling author Cornelia Funke is almost too beautiful to give it away. In her popular style of writing the author leads her readers into a magic land of stories in which not only little bookworms and attic ghosts but various other heroes live.

A special book by a special author deserves a special refurbishment: a magnificent cover illustration full of atmosphere by the popular illustrator of children's books Sybille Hein, half-linen bound and ribbon page marker make this omnibus volume a very special treasure.

Cornelia Funke

Cornelia Funke was born 1958 in Dorsten, Westphalia. After university she worked for three years as a social worker in an educational project, where she met children from difficult backgrounds. Additionally she studied book illustration at Hamburg State College of Design. When she started writing children's books she illustrated her own stories. At the age of 28 she became a fulltime writer of children's books and is today one of the best known and most successful Germany writers. She currently lives in Los Angeles with her children.
