Story

The second underwater adventure for dolphin Silver Fin and his friend Marie: far under the sea they finally discover the second of the stolen pearls. But this pearl of fantasy is in the hands of a eight-legged being. An exciting race against time starts...

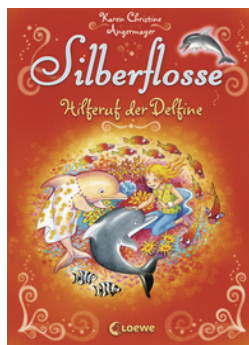

Karen Christine Angermayer

Karen Christine Angermayer started writing short stories at the age of 5. She wrote them in a special script so nobody else could read it. Today she is the manager of a text agency and works free-lance as a ghost writer and author. She lives with her family in a small village in Germany and enjoys the quiet life in the nature.
