Story

Vacations are approaching! Daka and Sylvania, the two half-vampires are eager to travel back to their home town Bistrieni and meet all their friends and relatives. And best of all: their friend Helene is allowed to come with them. But as soon as they get there, Helene falls head over heels in love with Murdo, a vampire! Daka and Sylvania find themselves busy trying to prevent Murdo biting their best friend... Another great adventure with the two half-vampires, full of wit and quirky ideas!

- A perennially popular series of 13 volumes with more than 900.000 copies sold so far
- Wonderfully witty and original
- English sample translation available
- Two successful movies with more than 1.5 million viewers in Germany
- Coming soon: An illustrated relaunch for the younger ones!

Franziska Gehm

Franziska Gehm was born in 1974. She studied English, psychology and intercultural economy communication in Germany, England and Ireland. After finishing her studies she worked at a grammar school in Denmark, for a German radio station and in a publishing house. Today she works and lives as an author and translator in Munich with her family. Many of her books have been translated into various languages.

Press commentaries

“Franziska Gehm turns the table – usually humans try to arrange themselves with the Vampires, in this funny and witty series it is the other way round.” Westfälische Nachrichten

“Gehm, author of the Vampire Sisters, concentrates on weird characters, hilarious dialogues and situations that arise from the clash of two cultures.” Buch und Maus

“Franziska Gehm has developed a story with many subplots and twists, so that the Vampire Sisters Series will be a joy to read for girls aged 10 and older... funny and exciting.” AVIVA

“A vampire story out of the ordinary for all who like a good thrill, but still not too scary.”
