Story

Hanna has had enough! Her aunt Elvis has been around for several days now, driving everyone up the walls with her favourite songs. Even veterinarian Dr. Hunman acts strange when he is around her. He turns red for no reason, stutters, and starts to sweat... It's Hanna's friend Julia who discovers his secret: Dr. Hunman has fallen in love with Aunt Elvis! It's time to act for Hanna, Julia, and of course little Professor Paul!

Little Professor Paul is the world's greediest and loveliest pony – that's at least what Hanna thinks, and she should know best, since Paul is HER pony. Our new series aims at girls aged 8+ who dream about ponies day and night. It offers classic pony adventures, told in a charming and witty way. The author writes very intuitively for girls aged 8+ and their love for ponies and horses.

Marion Meister

Marion Meister was born in 1974. As an artist she soon discovered her love for the moving image and studied film animation in Babelsberg at the "Konrad Wolf" school for film and television. She currently works as a free illustrator in Berlin. She is the author of the pony series "Hanna and Little Professor Paul" and together with her husband Derek she has created and illustrated the "Dragon Camp Fire Flint" series.
