Story

Cooking Classes? Jenny would never have thought that her idea would be chosen for the school party: and to be honest, she knows as little about cooking as she does about love. Absolutely nothing, that is. But now she is standing at the stove next to Ben who is so sweet she could eat him right up – but will Vanessa come in her way? On their way towards the summer vacation, it is getting hotter and hotter...

Karen Christine Angermayer

Karen Christine Angermayer started writing short stories at the age of 5. She wrote them in a special script so nobody else could read it. Today she is the manager of a text agency and works free-lance as a ghost writer and author. She lives with her family in a small village in Germany and enjoys the quiet life in the nature.
