Story

"Watch out! Kiss alarm!" whispers Anna to her sister Lotta as their relatives arrive for the family gathering. The girls enjoy the visit, but they don't like all these people giving them kisses. Fortunately they know how to show this.

In this book the children have to cope with many other situations too. They repeatedly have to be brave and confident enough to admit their fear or discomfort, to argue and make up. To say no and set limits. Their stories can encourage small listeners to be more self-confident.

Jana Frey

Jana Frey was born in 1969. She started writing when she was only five years old. After studying literature, history and arts she founded a family. Jana Frey has published numerous books for children and young adults and has been awarded several times. Many of her books have been translated into various languages. Her literary range covers picture books and novels for early readers as well as novels for YA-readers. Jana Frey succeeds in combining true background stories with fictitious elements - her nomination for the "German Adolescents Literature Award" (Deutscher Jugendliteraturpreis) with her title "Downward Flight" ("Höhenflug abwärts") bears evidence of her talent. In spring 2006 her well-researched and captivatingly written historic novel "Prügelknabe" attracted the critic's attention. Jana Frey lives in Wiesbaden with her family.
