Story

Karla and her friends just can think of one thing: horses ... and everything that belongs to taking care of these animals: feeding, grooming and cleaning the stables.

But what can the girls do when they hear mysterious noises at night that seem to come from the stables?

Karen Christine Angermayer

Karen Christine Angermayer started writing short stories at the age of 5. She wrote them in a special script so nobody else could read it. Today she is the manager of a text agency and works free-lance as a ghost writer and author. She lives with her family in a small village in Germany and enjoys the quiet life in the nature.
