Story

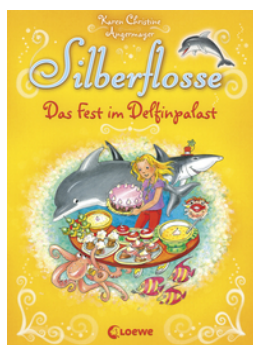

Twinkling water fountains, luminous corals and a palace out of shimmering shells – this is the magical underwater world of the dolphins and Silver Fin’s home.

In this fourth volume Silver Fin and Marie search for the ‘Pearl of Good Taste’ which has been stolen. All food just tastes like smelly fins and everybody is starving.

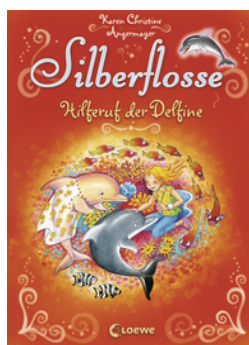

Karen Christine Angermayer

Karen Christine Angermayer started writing short stories at the age of 5. She wrote them in a special script so nobody else could read it. Today she is the manager of a text agency and works free-lance as a ghost writer and author. She lives with her family in a small village in Germany and enjoys the quiet life in the nature.
