Story

Marie and Silver Fin have to find the next magic pearl to rescue the Moon Fish. Without the pearl, the fish will no longer be able to sing and therefore lose their magic.

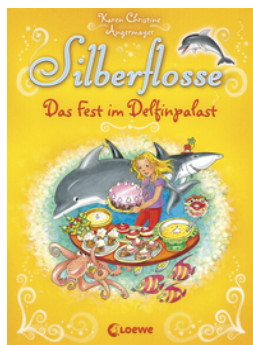

Key Points:

- with these short and easy novels we offer girls at a young age to learn reading in a playful manner
- underwater worlds for early readers
- colourful illustrations help the new reader to understand the story

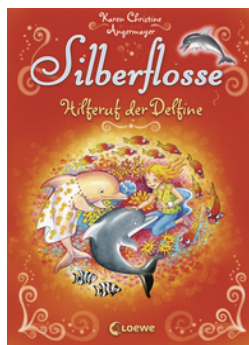

Karen Christine Angermayer

Karen Christine Angermayer started writing short stories at the age of 5. She wrote them in a special script so nobody else could read it. Today she is the manager of a text agency and works free-lance as a ghost writer and author. She lives with her family in a small village in Germany and enjoys the quiet life in the nature.
