Aurélie Cardot is back at the Pure Grace Academy with only one goal: to uncover the truth about her mother's death. Celebrated prima ballerina Cécile Cardot, founder of the prestigious ballet academy in Paris, was found dead on the bank of a river. Supposedly a suicide, but not in her daughter's eyes. Back in the halls Aurélie once swore never to return to, she follows every lead in order to piece together the shattered remains of her family. There she meets her former best friend Lucian, from whom she has not heard a single word since leaving the academy. Yet now, in the emerald-green eyes of the attractive pianist, Aurélie discovers feelings she herself has denied for years. Their shared pas de deux brings down more than just his facade. Behind the flawless faces of the ballet, the dark shadows of the past are still dancing, until the final curtain falls – and takes Aurélie with it. Dark academia meets suspense in the heart of Paris: The Final Bow by SPIEGEL-bestselling author Jennifer Bright weaves together the world of ballet with dramatic thrills and a love that leaves us gasping for breath.

Surrounded by picturesque mountains lies the luxury hotel Mont Lacroix. But for aspiring hotel manager Lelibeth, it is more than that – it is her home. When she receives nothing but rejections, Noah Benz seems to be her only option. Noah, who not only makes it very clear what he thinks of her plan – absolutely nothing – but who also, unintentionally, gets far too much under her skin. And who has a secret: he is the son of her biggest competitor.

In Mont Lacroix – Longing for Lelibeth, SPIEGEL-bestselling author Alexandra Flint transports us to an exclusive luxury hotel in the Alps. An extraordinary combination of high society, feel-good atmosphere, and haters-to-lovers x hidden identity – full of spark, secrets, and lots of romance!

Princess Aurora of Morena has one rule: never date a racing driver. The pain over the loss of a friend in a fatal accident still runs too deep. Yet it is precisely in the presence of Adrian Brunetti – a Formula 1 driver himself and her brother's annoying best friend – that she truly feels free. Which is why, on one single perfect July night, she marries him on impulse. The very next week she is determined to have their union dissolved, immediately and with instant effect, but then Adrian is involved in a terrible accident at the Grand Prix of Morena. The former golden boy turns into a withdrawn man who refuses any help. Only in Aurora's presence a spark of the old Adrian shines through. And so, with every word, every touch, every glance that lingers too long, she is forced to ask herself: what does it mean if she breaks her rule and stays by Adrian's side? In the second volume of her Formula 1 sports romance, SPIEGEL-bestselling author Carolin Wahl lets two worlds collide: princess meets racing driver. Black cat x golden retriever. Luxury meets passion. Yet they share one thing: for both of them, friendship and family come above everything else.

In a world full of illusions, true love changes everything.
