Stop the thief!

Milan's dad is a police officer. He is currently investigating a new case. Milan is even allowed to go to the police station. But something is not right ... Can the police solve the case with Milan's help?

About Reading Lions (Year 1):

With the reading lions for first grade, children can already read their first own book all by themselves. Each book contains an exciting story on a popular topic with lots of colourful pictures, short sentences and small text units which are divided into 'steps of meaning'. The large, easy-to read font was developed especially for beginning readers and is also suitable for dyslexics. The syllable colouring makes it easier to grasp words. With the puzzles and the factual information at the end of the story, first-time readers can easily check whether they have understood the text correctly. This makes learning to read fun!

Amelie Benn

Amelie Benn was born in 1974 in southern Germany. During her studies, she lived in Nepal, Israel, and England. There she visited many magical places and collected ideas for her stories. Today she lives with her family in the Schiller town of Marbach.
