Easy Reading made simple with the Reading Lions Comics!

Ever since zombie boy Mori dreamed of the Overworld, he's wanted to see it for himself! But the other zombies just laugh at him and warn him about the sky fire. Then one day, a human girl named Vita accidentally wanders into the cave – and Mori decides to follow her. Will he be able to survive the dangers of the Overworld?

Reading Lions Comics combine the trusted quality of Reading Lions with the playful format of comics, making them perfect for beginner readers. The texts are clearly structured through speech bubbles and divided into meaningful chunks, just like in Reading Lions books. Large, colorful illustrations help readers follow the storyline. The big, easy-to-read font, specially designed for beginners, has already proven its worth in Reading Lions books. The question pages at the end of the book allow readers to check their comprehension. With exciting themes and great characters, learning to read has never been cooler!

Karl Olsberg

Karl Olsberg completed his doctorate on artificial intelligence, was a management consultant, manager at a TV station and founded several start-ups. His first novel "Das System" was published in 2007 and immediately made it onto the Spiegel bestseller list. Since then, he has not only successfully written novels for adults, but also for young people and children. The thriller "Boy in a White Room" was nominated for the German Youth Literature Prize 2018. His Minecraft novels, which he initially self-published, reached number 2 on the Amazon bestseller list. In addition, his start-up "Papego", which develops the app of the same name for mobile reading of printed books, was honoured as "Content Start-up of the Year 2016" at the Frankfurt Book Fair. The author lives with his family in Hamburg.
