Lost in the waves, they find themselves in the storm.

Elisa's life is in chaos: after a scandal, she is kicked off her university's swimming team and her medical studies are on the line. Without further ado, she flees from Australia to her former home on the island of Sylt - where she meets Jonah Falk, of all people. The professional surfer plunges into the waves even in the fiercest storms and doesn't exactly have the best reputation on the island. But Elisa can't shake the feeling that there's more to Jonah's reckless ways ...

The stormy continuation of the Tales of Sylt

In No Storm too Close, SPIEGEL bestselling author Alexandra Flint shows how important it is to find your own way and look behind the facade. A thrilling love story on the beautiful island of Sylt - with two protagonists who are stormier than the North Sea itself. Tingling guaranteed!
