What is a currycomb? Who rides in a convoy of fire engines? How do you do a pirouette? When does the referee order a penalty? 5-year-olds are particularly inquisitive and ask one question after another about their world. Our new "Picture Mouse Reading Dictionary" series is just right for them. Four exciting stories allow small readers to immerse themselves in their favourite subject, and, as in an ordinary dictionary, factual pages provide the most important information. The colourful discovery pages encourage children to talk about what is going on and reinforce what they have learned.

Lydia Hauenschild

Lydia Hauenschild was born on a farm in 1957 in Bavaria. Life on her parent's farm influenced her childhood immensely. She studied agriculture and turned to writing only when she discovered that there were no guide books on parenting twins after her children were born. The quick success motivated her and she has written a number of children's books since then.
