Hugo, Volume 4

ab 10 years

208 Pages, 15.3 cm x 21.5 cm

ISBN: 978-3-7855-7413-3

Hardcover

Hugo is in year 6 and what he likes best is hanging around with his best friend Nico and worrying about the biggest problem that anyone his age can have: how to change overnight from being an average guy to a superhero?

‘Hollywood calling!’ is what he thinks when his English teacher puts out a call for up-and-coming theatrical talents for the school play. Especially when he discovers that his arch-rival who is a fashion model in his spare time and calls himself the world’s greatest advertising star, is also auditioning. Should he let him take the best part? Definitely not! Hugo has already made a plan...

- Each volume a standalone story focusing on one topic e.g. sports, school, girls
- Witty comic-style illustrations supporting the text
- Authentic and understanding description of the world of an 12-year-old
- Author Sabine Zett is perfectly entitled to understand the mind of a 12-year-old as she has a son of the same age
- Easy to read as funny illustrations break up the text
