Ruby Fairygale's first adventure - lovingly and excitingly told

8-year-old Ruby Fairygale lives on a small island near the west coast of Ireland. After school, she always helps her grandmother, who works as a veterinarian. But the two of them have a big secret: they know that there are not only animals on the island, but also magical mythical creatures that need their help.

Summer vacation at last! Now Ruby can spend the whole day helping her grandma take care of animals and also fairies, goblins and other mythical creatures! It's not easy to keep this secret - especially from Briana, the most unfriendly girl in Ruby's class. When Bri's father's fishing nets are destroyed, Briana suspects a pack of seals and is determined to drive them away. But Ruby suspects that something else is behind this. Something completely magical ... And indeed: a little mermaid had become entangled in the fishing net! Can Ruby still stop Bri without revealing her secret?

- Prequel of successful children's book series "Ruby Fairygale"!
- Chapter book stories, perfect for Story Time and readers aged 7 and up
- Written by Marlene Jablonski ("Liliane Susewind" Chapter book series), based on a synopsis by Kira Gembri
- Strong female protagonist and lovingly developed characters, with a high sympathy factor
- With many atmospheric illustrations

Kira Gembri

Kira Gembri was born in Vienna in 1990. She remained loyal to this beautiful city after completing her degree in literature. She shares her love of books with her two children who firmly believe in fairytales. Mythical creatures don't live with her by the way – but she does have a cat who was definitely a goblin in his former life.

Marlene Jablonski

Marlene Jablonski was born in 1978 in Gdansk where she lived and went to school until she was ten. She moved to Düsseldorf with her family in 1988. After graduating from high school, she worked in an advertising agency for a few months before she began working as a freelance writer in 2000.
