Juli is full of hate. He hates his mother, who drinks, his father, who has simply disappeared and the poverty he has grown up in. He trusts only Adam, his mother's new boy-friend. But Adam never stays anywhere long. And when he goes away, Juli is alone and sad and angry with the whole world. So angry that he hits back. Until one day after he has been locked behind bars he starts to pull himself together.

Jana Frey

Jana Frey was born in 1969. She started writing when she was only five years old. After studying literature, history and arts she founded a family. Jana Frey has published numerous books for children and young adults and has been awarded several times. Many of her books have been translated into various languages. Her literary range covers picture books and novels for early readers as well as novels for YA-readers. Jana Frey succeeds in combining true background stories with fictitious elements - her nomination for the ""German Adolescents Literature Award"" (Deutscher Jugendliteraturpreis) with her title ""Downward Flight"" (""Höhenflug abwärts"") bears evidence of her talent. In spring 2006 her well-researched and captivatingly written historic novel ""Prügelknabe"" attracted the critic's attention. Jana Frey lives in Wiesbaden with her family.
