Syllable stories for learning to read

- Successful "Reading Pirate" titles in a new look
- Supports acquisition of reading competency through coloured syllables
- The difficulty level of the texts ties in directly with "Reading Lions Year 2".
- Popular with teachers, educators, and parents who want to help their children learn to read

What a dog's life! Puppy Timmi is terribly bored. While his master Jan is scoring goals on the soccer field, he has to wait on the bench. But soon Timmi smells his cue. Benno the watchdog, on the other hand, has completely overslept: when he wakes up, the fox and his prey are long gone. Milli, on the other hand, finds a cute little puppy.

Julia Boehme

Julia Boehme studied literature and music and afterwards worked as an editor for a children's TV programme. One day she remembered that as a child she had wanted to become a writer. Right away she decided that from now on she was going to be a writer exclusively. Ever since she is creating new stories for television and writes children's books.
