Who Needs a Knight in Shining Armor When Mr. Knightley Lives Next Door?

The last thing Emma Woodhouse needs is a husband. She's beautiful, wealthy, and perfectly independent. Instead of worrying about her own future, she focuses on securing a suitable match for her penniless friend Harriet Smith. But her meddling throws the social order of quiet little Highbury into chaos, leaves Harriet heartbroken, and nearly costs Emma the affection of the one person who truly matters – the steady, kind-hearted Mr. Knightley. After all, her heart has long belonged to him... she just didn't realize it yet.

Now, following Pride and Prejudice, another one of Jane Austen's beloved masterpieces is reimagined as a stunning graphic novel – tenderly retold by Claudia Kühn and lovingly illustrated by Tara Spruit.

- Published in Celebration of Jane Austen's 250th Anniversary
- A timeless Classic brought to Life as an accessible and emotionally nuanced Graphic Novel
- Beautifully illustrated in rich, period-inspired Artwork
