Paperback

Every day when he goes to school, Niko is afraid. Because there Kevin, Matthias and Raphael are waiting for him. They hit him. They kick him. They blackmail him. Their attacks become more and more frequent and brutal. Until Niko sees no other way out and forms a desperate plan. Somehow or other he must get hold of a weapon ... Elisabeth Zöller vividly describes how in his desperation, Niko changes from victim to perpetrator. Violence at schools is increasing and the well-known author Elisabeth Zöller describes realistic conflict situations vividly and sensitively. Her stories provide parents, educators, teachers and children with sound discussion material and suggest ways in which violence could be prevented.
