A VERY SPECIAL PRINCESS

Princess Ida is very excited about her parents coming home. She wants to welcome them back with a special surprise. The brave, inventive little princess sets out with her friend Filu, the little owl, to look for the perfect present. Ida helps lots of friends along the way. But she can't seem to find a surprise for her parents. As it gets dark and the King and Queen's return draws ever closer, Ida has to hurry. But which of the paths leads out of the Enchanted Forest? And will the little princess manage to organise a surprise before time runs out?

An extraordinary story about helping others and the joy of sharing – because you often get more in return than you give!

- A lovable little princess readers will find it easy to identify with
- Powerful topics for the target group: helping others and sharing
