Würzburg in April 1896: Professor Röntgen gives a lecture about his discovery of the X-Rays, when suddenly one of his students gets arrested. The suspicion: Abduction! But the state of evidence is uncertain and the kidnapped girl cannot be found. Michel, Schorsch and Klara try to solve the case and a hint leads them directly into the professors' laboratory. Could the professor be the kidnapper? No! The students find the real abductor and prove the professor's innocence.
