A new job for 8-year-old Tom, ghost Hugo and Grandma Hedwig Cumminjuice - the famous ghosthunters: They have to deal with "a ghost with a mysterious past". A lady ghost spooks in a castle and the nice old couple of janitors call Tom & co. for help. In order to drive away historic ghosts you have to know the exact date and circumstances of their death. This is not that simple, especially if the ghost does everything to prevent that.
