A Flood, a Beaver and a Very Brave Rescue...

Eddie the raccoon is starting to feel at home in the forest – even if he still misses coffee and cookies. Now, he's busy explaining to his fellow Animal Firefighters that being a firefighter is about much more than just putting out fires. And he gets the perfect chance to prove it: it's been raining for days, the water levels are rising, and Eddie knows things are about to get dangerous. Sure enough, the Animal Firefighters are soon called to rescue a family of rats from the flood. But during the mission, they accidentally flood a rabbit warren – and one of the baby bunnies is still trapped inside! Time is running out. Luckily, Justin the beaver steps up. He's got exactly what it takes to dive in and search the flooded tunnels for the missing bunny. Will the Animal Firefighters pull off another successful rescue?
