There is nothing boring about being with your childhood sweetheart

Anna, Polly and Anouk all have very different goals after graduating high school, but this does not harm their friendship. Quite the opposite: they have to stick together more tightly than ever. As there are a lot of things about life as an adult that no one has prepared them for – not to mention their love lives! All these experiences are shared on a joint Instagram account. Graduating from school means quite a few opportunities, but what if the fear of it stands in the way? In this humorous and touching New Adult series, Kyra Groh shows that it's perfectly okay not to have a plan for life yet.

In Anouk's life, many things compete for the position of top priority: the delivery of subscription boxes of the family-owned organic farm, the shifts at the farm store, her relationship with her childhood sweetheart Kaya, her friends, her mother's MS disease. The only thing she never put first was herself. Until, after a series of broken dates, jealous text messages and misunderstandings, she breaks up with Kaya, who has moved to Munich to study at university. When she meets the mysterious Valentin soon after, it turns Anouk's life upside down from one moment to the next and gives her everything she has wanted for so long: endless interest, romantic words, erotic fantasies. She becomes almost addicted to hearing from Valentin. Then comes the weekend of Kaya's sister's wedding, and to Anouk's surprise, she spends a really nice evening with Kaya and her family. Kaya knows Anouk well - something she misses with Valentin. When he cancels a long-planned weekend trip at short notice and Kaya shows up there instead, Anouk's emotional chaos is perfect.

Anouk realizes that she first needs to figure out a lot of things in her life - regardless of who she's with - and how to be proud of herself.

- True-to-life stories for readers aged 14 and up
- Confident female protagonists with authentic conflicts and a hint of tasteful eroticism
- Stories about first steps towards independence: Career choices, fear of the future, knowing and accepting yourself
- Can be read as a standalone, independent from Anna and Polly's stories
