First Independent Reading.

Molle the bat lives with her friends at Eckstein Castle. Life could be so peaceful – if only all those people didn't keep visiting the castle. They're loud and leave their trash everywhere. And one night, things get even worse: Molle is caught by a human and locked in a cage. What can her friends do now? Will they be able to rescue her?

With the Reading Lions (Year 1) children can read their very first book all on their own. Exciting stories about engaging themes and characters, plenty of colorful illustrations, short sentences, and small text sections support the learning-to-read process. The large, easy-to-read font was specifically designed for beginner readers and is also suitable for children with dyslexia. Syllable coloring makes it easier to recognize words. Question pages after each chapter and fun factual information at the end of the story help young readers effortlessly check their understanding. Learning to read has never been this fun!
