A December Full of Surprises

When a tiny elf door appears on December 1st, one thing is certain: Christmas is about to get magical – and a little bit chaotic! This year, the family elf is up to all sorts of mischief: baking cookies, making it snow, and even playing the occasional trick. This book equips parents with everything they need to keep the magic going. Inside are 24 fun elf activities that are simple, affordable, and designed to delight children every morning. For each day, there's also a matching riddle or coloring page to tear out and leave at the elf door as a daily surprise.

A joyful, low-effort way to make this Advent season truly unforgettable!

- All-in-one Starter Kit for your Family's Elf Door Tradition
- Simple, low-cost Ideas that are easy to pull off
- Includes tear-out Riddles and coloring Pages for each Day
- With a printable Elf Door included
