The stories from the Bible are still part of children's everyday life in many families and help them to understand our society. Age-appropriate communication is crucial here. That is why this children's Bible brings together the most beautiful and important texts from the Old and New Testaments in loving retellings. From the creation of the world to the deeds and miracles of Jesus, it tells of love, confidence and of bigger and smaller events. Combined with atmospheric illustrations, this is the ideal basis for reading aloud and discussions in the family, the congregation or school and kindergarten.

- Child-friendly retellings of texts from the Old and New Testaments
- Provides an occasion for conversations about big topics such as faith, love and living together
- Modern and loving illustrations by Susanne Göhlich
