The upcoming family holidays will be some kind of a problem for Luzie: How could she possibly manage to hide Leander from her family in a small mobile home, and even more important how shall she resist this very nice looking and not unattractive body protector in such a small home? And he can't even remember that they have kissed. But this problem seems to be solved quite soon as some of Leander's abilities seem to move over to Luzie and suddenly she becomes invisible as well. Leander has just one solution for this: He has to stay away from Luzie and disappears. Luzie's hunt begins: She tries to get her body back and has to find Leander.

Bettina Belitz

Bettina Belitz was born in Heidelberg in 1973, and very soon fell under the spell of the book shelves. It wasn't long before reading wasn't enough – no, she had to scribble her own stories down, too. After university, Bettina Belitz worked as a journalist until she was able to devote herself to her youthful enthusiasms. Nowadays, she lives surrounded by horses, sheep, cats and chickens in a village of 400 inhabitants in Westerwald, where she is inspired by nature and weather to write her novels.
