Paperback

The adventures of legendary King Arthur and his knights of the round table have always inspired the imagination of story tellers. Ever since the beginning of his reign, he has been wondrous: with the aid of the wizard Merlin, he is able to pull a sword out of a block of marble – and thus, the undetected King's son becomes the ruler of Britain.

Waldtraut Lewin takes her reader on a journey to the world of knights and noblewomen and tells thrilling and vividly about love, betrayal, and faith till death.
