Comics for Learning to Read? Oh Yes!

Theo and his friend, the dragon Kokolo, must act fast. Will they make it in time?

Reading Lions Comics for first graders combine the trusted quality of Reading Lions with the playful format of comics, making them perfect for beginner readers. The texts are clearly structured through speech bubbles and divided into meaningful chunks, just like in Reading Lions books. Large, colorful illustrations help readers follow the storyline.

The big, easy-to-read font, specially designed for beginners, has already proven its worth in Reading Lions books. The question pages at the end of the book allow readers to check their comprehension. With exciting themes and great characters, learning to read has never been cooler!

Barbara van den Speulhof

Barbara van den Speulhof once encountered a dragon herself as a child. Probably even a real dragon. That day, she wished that one day she would write stories about dragons. And that's exactly what she does today. In her numerous books, she not only writes about dragons, but also about trolls, elves, and other creatures with paws, wings, or feet. She encounters these creatures everywhere, either on her travels or in Frankfurt am Main, where she lives.
