Her name is Fond. Jane Fond. As a world-famous secret agent Lola saves the world night after night. In the daytime, unfortunately, her activities as a spy are not quite so successful. Just when they could be useful because her father's restaurant is in serious difficulties: a well-known critic threatens to write a bad review about it. And all because of a few ice cubes on his trousers and a harmless rodent he saw in the restaurant! Like real secret agents, Lola and her friend Flo set off on the man's trail - and a dangerous mission begins! Lola has swiftly captured the hearts of her readers. The third volume is again a book to brighten up your day!
