The heroes in this volume of stories are brave, imaginative and smart. Scary ghosts haunt the school, although they would much rather be playing football... But they are not the only heroes: clever detectives solve the hardest cases, and even little dreamers have a part to play... Exciting, amusing and charming stories by the successful author Manfred Mai for listening to or reading independently.

Manfred Mai

Manfred Mai born in 1949 in Winterlingen, grew up on a farm. As a child, he had no appreciation for books, and the thought of going to college never entered his mind. After finishing school, he did an apprenticeship as a painter in a factory. But he did not really enjoy it. He became more and more discontented and started searching for new horizons. During this time, he discovered his passion for books. He read and learnt much, became a teacher and finally an author. Today, Manfred Mai lives with his wife and his two daughters in beautiful Swabia.
