Ruby Fairygale lives on a windswept island. She looks after injured animals and magical mythical creatures. Ruby is in love: with Mopsi, a cute puppy. But unfortunately Mopsi is not allowed to stay. He has only moved in with her and Nana temporarily.

Ruby takes the search for a new home for him into her own hands, because she wants him to stay on the island. As if that wasn't enough, there is unrest among the goblins. Kenny, a young goblin, has received his pot of gold - a milestone in a goblin's life - and lost it straight away. He is completely distraught, how is he supposed to explain this to the other goblins? And what is he supposed to do? Will Ruby find the gold and a new home for Mopsi?
