Deadly Trials. Darker Secrets. One Truth That Could Kill...

When medical student Quinn wakes up with no memory of the night before, she knows something is very wrong – and that she's forgotten something important. She's convinced it has to do with the secret society she's been investigating... and the mysterious drug they're developing. Then the unthinkable happens: the society wants to recruit her. Despite her growing doubts, Quinn agrees to undergo their brutal initiation. She needs answers – and this might be the only way to get them.

In Book 2 of Academy of Lies Nina Scheweling plunges us back into the shadowy halls of an elite medical university, where nothing is as it seems and every truth comes at a price. How far would you go to uncover it?

- The final Volume in the gripping and atmospheric Suspense Series
- A haunting blend of Dark Academia and Medical Thriller
- Secret Societies, sinister Experiments and lethal Initiations
- With a slow-burning Love Story simmering beneath the Surface
