3,2,1, go!

Finally, astronaut John is allowed to fly to space in his spaceship. Many exciting tasks and adventures await him there. On his fly back, John receives weird signals – are they coming from an alien?

Picture Mouse – Learn to read with stickers for children aged 5+ who are starting to learn to read independently and want to have fun doing it! With the help of the enclosed stickers, children can solve fantastic puzzles and answer questions about the text. There are also colouring-in pages to give them a well-earned break. In this way, children learn to love reading and develop their comprehension skills in a fun and playful way.

THiLO

THiLO spent the first 20 years of his life in the children's corner of his parents' bookshop. He then travelled in Africa, Asia and Central America before successfully touring with friends as a cabaret trio. Today THiLO lives in Mainz with his family and writes stories and scripts for TV programmes.
