The Wild Horses of Umbra

How unfair—Elli's older sister gets to take riding lessons, and she doesn't! Luckily, Grandma knows how to cheer her up: she entrusts Elli with a mysterious shell-paint. Using it, Elli paints a stunning horse. The moment she adds the final brushstroke, a swirl of color whisks her away to the hidden valley of Umbra. Standing beside her is the dream horse she just painted: Miracle Mane. It has come to life! Together with other wild horses and Liron, the guardian of the herd, Miracle Mane lives safely in the hidden valley. But to keep this sanctuary protected, Elli and Miracle Mane must face a dangerous course and prove that true friendship is the greatest magic of all.

- Heartwarming horse fantasy for children aged 7 and up
- Atmospheric, magical, and thrilling

Jana Hoch

Jana Hoch was born in Hanover and still lives near the city today. Her passion for writing and presenting her own stories began in elementary school, where she had her father edit her work. Jana draws inspiration for her Miracle Mane series from the deep bond she shares with her horse, Jamie. She lets her imagination guide her as she writes, often surprising herself with where her words take her. Through her books, Jana aims to reach as many children as possible, inspiring them to cherish and connect with animals.
