Three in one!

Go on an adventure through history and solve three thrilling criminal cases. Isaac Newton is attacked in his laboratory, a network of conspiracies concerning Marie Curie has to be uncovered and a stolen violin case gets Albert Einstein in trouble.

In every volume young detectives can solve a crime by looking for clues and solving tricky puzzles. An appendix provides extra factual information. A truly gripping reading adventure is guaranteed!

""A mixture between historical and scientific facts that are entwined perfectly in a little criminal story!"" fantasyguide.de

""Being a thrilling story, children won't even notice the amount of general knowledge entwined in the story – they'll be caught up in the storyline." Bücher

Annette Neubauer
