Hitting, kicking, slapping people in the face – that's all Jörg can do. Continuous violent behaviour, for no reason and usually inflicted on Christoph. But one day Jörg goes too far. Tilda gets mobbed as well. By the Frightful Four, a girls' gang. Tilda is silenced. Until one day she dares to fetch help. And being nasty can then no longer be kept a secret. Dina is hurt by other children at her school in a different way. How should she defend herself? Should she fight back? No, that's no solution. Violence is never a solution! Five stories for children who have just started reading, covering different aspects of violence, from bullying and blackmail to physical attacks - with a detailed glossary and an epilogue for parents and teachers.
