A real monster that sits in the fridge and eats everything inside it? Leo finds this hard to take in. Mum and Dad will never believe him! There's a nasty monster in the ghost train, too. And he is so very, very bored, because all the other ghosts are made of cardboard. Up in the mountains, there are monsters that can even swallow an entire class and its school bus. The school children must think of something quickly! That's why they start singing so horribly that the monster will feel really ill...
