When two special people kiss during a moonlit night under a special tree that turns 100 years in precisely that moment, you can be certain that their future children will have special abilities.

That's what dad always tells us when we sit next to the fireplace at night, cuddled-up in blankets, a hot chocolate in our hands. And those special children are we:

Henry, the twins Marlin and Marlene, Oskar, Blümchen, Lu and I, Adele.

What happens in Volume 3:

Adele's big wish comes true: she finds a club! With her siblings and her friend Martha, Adele wants to save animals. However, this is proving to be quite complicated. But not only that: Adele's Club also has a lot to do. Because the rules say no secrets and no arguments! But it's not that easy when everyone wants to be a boss. . . In the end, however, only one thing counts: sticking together and standing up for each other!
