Winston, the protagonist of the best-selling children's series (over 300,000 copies sold, published in 12 languages)!

What happens in Volume 1:

Things aren't easy for Winston. Because of a tempting meat roll, he gets into an exhibition of mummies by accident. How is that possible? Not important right now. After all, who would have thought that his next case would wait here? The cat mummy Miu needs Winston's help desperately. The pharaoh's gold death mask got stolen and when it won't turn up soon, revenge from horrible Anubis will await...

Frauke Scheunemann

Frauke Scheunemann was born in 1969 in Düsseldorf, and qualified as a lawyer. She started by working on a placement with the North German Radio, and ended up as a journalist and press spokesperson. Since 2002 she has been a freelance author and writes very successful novels with her sister Wiebke Lorenz under the Anne Hertz pseudonym. The entire Anne Hertz output amounts to one million books. In 2010 Scheunemann's first solo novel appeared, called Dackelblick, which was an instant bestseller and became the first volume in a much-loved series. Frauke Scheunemann is married and lives in Hamburg with her husband and four children, and Elmo the dog.
