Paperback

What do horse lovers need, apart from horses? Books about horses!

These two new stories offer any number of horses, adventures, surprising developments, along with a whisp of first love.

Lena is thrilled: she is getting a horse for her birthday! Something she has always wanted. Riding lessons too; things couldn't be better. But her happiness is short-lived, because the other girls in the riding school on the grand Trautenstein Estate turn out to be snooty horrors. Just as well that Ben, a boy with violet-blue eyes, is still prepared to give her a hand in the stables.

For her part, Malina has got to spend her holidays, not with her sweet riding school horse Alfie, but with pensioners on a small island in the North Sea. But this dull holiday with Granny soon turns into an adventure when she discovers that Granny's friend runs an animal refuge, which includes horses!
