The truth can make you rich.

The lie can make your worst nightmares come true.

It's a special kind of challenge that Philipp and Tessa embark on: One hundred people compete to test a unique, infallible lie detector: Scandor. He follows the candidates around the clock, sniffing out every pretext, every fib. Anyone who lies is out of the running and has to face their deepest fears. The person who is left standing at the end, on the other hand, receives five million euros in prize money.

But not everyone plays fair. And there is someone who has set out in search of a very special truth ...

The new thriller by Ursula Poznanski
