A Heartwarming Series Where Magic, Horses and Friendship Meet.

Using her grandmother's magical paints, Elli brings her dream horse to life. Everything blurs around her – and suddenly, Miracle Mane stands right before her. But disaster strikes: Elli spills the precious shell color. Only a few drops remain – barely enough for another journey to Umbra. Could this really be her last visit to the world of Miracle Mane? Determined not to give up, Elli sets out on a deep-sea quest with her soul horse and her friends. Somewhere in the depths lies the source of the shell color. But waiting for them are not only the majestic Queen of the Sea – but also the cunning giant squid, Jacobus. Will the magic of friendship be strong enough to help Elli and Miracle Mane one last time?

- Black-and-white Illustrations that bring a magical World to Life
- Book 3 in the cozy Horse Fantasy Series
- A moving Story about Courage, Imagination and the Power of true Friendship

Jana Hoch

Jana Hoch was born in Hanover and still lives near the city today. Her passion for writing and presenting her own stories began in elementary school, where she had her father edit her work. Jana draws inspiration for her Miracle Mane series from the deep bond she shares with her horse, Jamie. She lets her imagination guide her as she writes, often surprising herself with where her words take her. Through her books, Jana aims to reach as many children as possible, inspiring them to cherish and connect with animals.
