He has a problem. She is his solution.

Lilli Herzog breathes art. Until she makes a fatal mistake when assessing a painting that has been consigned, damaging not only her own reputation but also that of her family's traditional auction house. When the young gallery owner - and her chosen nemesis - Vincent Saint Clair offers her a chance to make amends, Lilli is anything but enthusiastic. But his proposal of exclusive cooperation sounds just too tempting. Lilli makes a deal with the devil and sets off with Vincent in search of a missing sculptor. Between art and glamor, the two not only get closer and closer to their goal, but also to each other...
