So many horses!

Nina is wide-eyed when she visits her grandad in Iceland. She immediately takes the mare Birta into her heart. Nina is allowed to ride her and together they experience a great adventure.

With the Reading Lions (Year 1) children can read their first book all by themselves. Exciting stories with strong themes and characters, lots of colourful pictures, short sentences and small text units help with learning how to read. The large, easy-to-read font has been specially developed for beginning readers and is also suitable for children with dyslexia. The syllable colouring makes it easier to grasp words. With the question pages after each chapter and the factual information at the end of the story, first-time readers can easily check whether they have understood the text correctly. This makes learning to read fun!

- A story for beginning readers
- With syllable colouring
- Simple sentences, large font
- With questions about the text and exciting factual knowledge

Sabine Giebken

Sabine Giebken, born in Munich in 1979, swapped ballet lessons for riding lessons at the age of eight. Even as a child, she wrote stories in exercise books, which later became her first horse books. After a degree in business administration and a few career detours, she finally turned her hobby of writing into a career. She lives in Bavaria and is a mum to two wild children, an affectionate dog and a self-confident Icelandic mare.
