Exercising is fun!

Stalk like a tiger, waddle like a duck, stride like a crane - with these and 13 other exercises, movement comes into the nursery!

Child-friendly step-by-step instructions and animating pictures convey the joy of gymnastics to kindergarten children and their adult caregivers. Coordination is trained in a playful way, plus: posture problems and obesity are prevented.

That's how children get fit like animals! Which is especially important at a young age, because it lays the foundation for a healthy lifestyle. Many interesting fun facts also provide an extra dose of knowledge

- 16 movement exercises based on animal models
- Promotes physical and mental development
- Includes interesting facts from the world of animals
- For children at kindergarten age, but also adults might be encouraged to join!
- Hanjo Fritzsche is a health coach and personal trainer with many years of experience
